

North Texas Crime Prevention Association

General Meeting

May 16, 2019

The training meeting was held at Rowlett Community Center, 5300 Main St. in Rowlett, TX. The meeting began at 9:59 am. Rowlett PD Assistant Chief Godfrey and Officer Neeves welcomed members of NTCPA to Rowlett. Curtis Garrett offered the invocation and President Scott Voigt led the Pledge to the American flag. He introduced the instructor, Emma Dugas-MADD Program Specialist and the training topic; "MADD Presentation 'Power of Parents'" Training concluded at 11:50 am followed by a brief lunch compliment of NTCPA.

President Scott Voigt began the General meeting at 12:10 pm. He welcomed first time visitor Assistant Chief Matt Brittain from Criswell College PD. A motion to accept the minutes from the April General Meeting was made by Mark Brazelton and seconded by Lita Snellgrove, the motion passed. President Voigt provided a quick explanation of Team 911 that is currently being used by TCPA. He touched on the value of continued Crime Prevention training for law enforcement and civilians. He will be sending information to the membership about upcoming events at area Childrens Hospitals that our members can participate in with TX Chisholm Trail. Hopefully we will be able to persuade TCPA to allow an update of CP-1, CP-2, and CP-3. The update of our bylaws is in progress and will be sent out to the membership with a vote on the changes in 60 days. The NTCPA website will be updated soon.

Treasurer Lita Snellgrove provided the training report for 1st VP Wendy Sheriff. CPTED training is finished. There were 10 students with lead instructor Jim Cauwwe. Our next meeting will be at University Park with the training on Auto Theft. She stated the balance of the Checking account was $XXXXXX and Savings account was $XXXXXX.

President Scott Voigt provided the Membership report for 2nd VP Valerie Snider. Our membership is currently at 114.

3rd VP Mark Brazelton had nothing to report.

Secretary Leslie Willingham shared that Scott Voigt is now the Registered Agent for NTCPA. She spoke briefly to encourage the membership to become TCOLE instructors and to share the knowledge they have gained from working in Crime Prevention.

Sgt. at Arms Abu Baba and Civilian at Large George Clark were unable to attend the meeting.

A motion to adjourn was made by Mark Brazelton and seconded by Curtis Garrett. Meeting adjourned at 12:41 pm.
